EcoVoyage Travel — About

Overview

EcoVoyage Travel is a boutique, sustainability-first adventure travel agency dedicated to redefining how people explore the planet. We design small-group and custom eco-friendly trips that support local communities and protect fragile environments. Our itineraries prioritize low-impact transport, certified eco-lodges, and hands-on cultural experiences guided by locally owned operators.

Mission

We make climate-positive exploration effortless. Every trip is crafted to reduce emissions, uplift regional partners, and deliver meaningful, safe, and unforgettable experiences in nature.

Services

- Tailored itineraries for adventure, culture, and wellness
- Small-group guided treks and eco-lodging
- Family and accessible travel planning
- Carbon-offset planning and traveler sustainability coaching
- 24/7 concierge support and travel insurance guidance

Team

Suha Abo Dahish — Founder & CEO

A sustainability strategist turned explorer, Suha founded EcoVoyage Travel after a decade working in environmental impact consulting. Her passion for regenerative tourism drives the company's mission to make exploration both enriching and responsible.

Arjun Patel — Head of Experience Design

With a background in cultural anthropology and outdoor leadership, Arjun curates immersive journeys that connect travelers deeply with local communities. He ensures every itinerary balances adventure with authenticity.

Lina Chen — Operations & Partnerships Director

Lina manages EcoVoyage's network of eco-lodges, guides, and carbon-offset partners. She brings experience from the hospitality sector and a strong commitment to community empowerment and green innovation.

Unique Value Proposition

EcoVoyage Travel stands out by merging adventure with accountability. Every trip not only minimizes carbon impact but also actively supports conservation and local livelihoods. Our approach blends modern comfort with environmental ethics—ensuring travelers leave every destination better than they found it.

We don't just take people places; we transform how they connect to the world.